

This boy is from Steppe.

He's speed most of his childhood in Hohhot, Inner Mongolia. The scene of the steppe in his hometown keeps flashing back in his mind these days. And it inspires him to make this album in memory of my past days. These photographs represent some part of him. To some extent, to read this book is to read about this boy.

This boy is from the Steppe.

by
Lu Tao